BERKSHIRE HILLS, Mass., Aug. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Heaton Ives Treadway and Mrs. Newman Kershaw Perry, of the Stockbridge colony, are arranging for a revival of the picturesque Ice Glen parade at Stockbridge the first week in September. The late David Dudley Field, who gave the Field tower and chimneys to the town, started the custom of an annual parade seventy years ago, thus emulating the Stockbridge Indians of 1722, who marched through the Glen at night, in war paint, to celebrate a victory over an enemy tribe. This year the cottage colony and hotel visitors will unite to make the parade the most picturesque event of the season in the hills. After the march through the cavern on Beartown Mountain the marchers will gather in Recreation Park for an Indian war dance about a blazing pile. Messrs. Walter Nettleton, Phillips Blagden, Frank E. Courten and Dr. Herbert E. Stockwell, of the Stockbridge Golf club, have arranged for an annual tournament starting on Wednesday. The principal trophy is the $500 Stockbridge cup, which in other years has been won by Mr. Malcolm McBurney, Mr. Walter Tuckerman, Mr. Daniel Fairchild and Mr. Dwight Partridge. The most skillful woman golfer on the Taconic club course at Williamstown this season is Mrs. Julia J. Hoyt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Evans Hoyt, who made the record score of 43 on Tuesday. Her best drive was 180 yards. Mrs. Charles E. Bedaux, of the Dixville Notch, New York, made the remarkable drive of 210 yards on Monday, and she has been playing golf only two weeks. She is staying at the Greylock Hotel with Mr. Bedaux. The best men's score of the season was made on Tuesday by Commander F. A. Todd, U. S. N., who is attending the Institute of Politics. He had a score of 38 going out and 41 on the return, 79 for the eighteen holes. Mrs. G. L. Douglas, Mr. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Mitchell, Mr. Philip M. Plan, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Inman, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Warner, of East Orange, N. J.; Mrs. William C. Lawson, Mr. Harry R. Saburi and Manuel de Oliveira Lima at a luncheon given by Mrs. Karl E. Weston at Thornwood, while Dr. and Mrs. Harry A. Garfield had a series of luncheons at President's House. In the Lenox colony Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew, who are at the Aspinwall Hotel, were frequent guests of honor at luncheons and dinners. Mrs. Henry Winthrop Gray entertained at luncheon for them and for Mrs. Schuyler Van Rensselaer.
